LITERACY, LANGUAGE SPOKEN, AND CONJUGAL CONDITION OF THE POPULATION TEN YEARS OF AGE AND OVER

The Census of 1931 showed a total population ten years of age and over of 8,169,622 of which 4,258,862 or 52.13 per cent were males and 3,910,760 or 47.81 per cent were females. In the previous census there was a total population of 6,681,711 at this age of which 3,467,595 or 51.9 per cent were males and 3,214,116 or 48.11 were females.

The improvement in the educational status of the population from 1921 to 1931 is reflected by the decrease in the number reported as being unable to "read and write". In the former census it was 5.73 per cent for males and 4.43 per cent for females as against 4.32 per cent for males and 3.21 for females at the last census (1931). By provinces the smallest percentage of illiteracy for the total population ten years of age and over was in Ontario followed by Prince Edward Island, in each of which it was under 3 per cent. The highest percentage unable to read and write, by provinces, was in New Brunswick with 6.91 per cent and Quebec with 4.76 per cent. Table No. I gives comparative figures for 1931 and 1921 of the population ten years of age and over.

The figures shown for the Yukon and Northwest Territories include the aboriginal population ten years of age and over. In the printed report particular reference will appear on the literacy of these people.

TABLES

TABLE I - Literacy of the population 10 years of age and over by sex for provinces, 1931-1921.
